Community Update and Elmwood Tidbits:

The first nine weeks has ended and we are starting the second. I am amazed at how fast the school year seems to go. We have the last Friday Night football game tonight, otherwise, fall sports are done, and the winter teams are ready to start practicing and preparing for their season ahead. You can find their schedules on our website, under the “High School / Athletics” tab.

On Tuesday, November 7th, the Elmwood Community will be voting for two open spots on the Elmwood Board of Education. For these two open spots, we have three candidates running. The following is from the Wood County Board of Elections website on our candidates:

Elmwood Local School District
Board of Education	Two to be Elected
Kristen L. Endicott	9320 Reynolds Rd. Wayne Ohio 43466
Brian S. King	9379 Emerson Rd. Wayne Ohio 43466
Matthew Reynolds	9790 Cygnet Rd. Cygnet Ohio 43413

REMEMBER—GET OUT AND VOTE!!!!!!

The HS quiz bowl team competed in the WTLW (Channel 44 for those with an antenna) Fall Whiz Quiz Tournament in Lima on October 3rd. Round 1 will be aired three times: October 19th 9PM, October 21st 7PM and October 22nd 2:30PM. Round 2 will also be aired three times: November 23rd 9PM, November 25th 7PM, and November 26th 2:30. Both will be shown as re-runs in December and January. In the future, the HS Quiz Bowl team will also be competing in the WBGU Brain Games and NBC 24 Academic Challenge. The air dates for those competitions have not been announced yet.

In my last newsletter, I wrote about the High School Homecoming Festivities. As an update, I wanted to let everyone know which senior was crowned as the King and Queen. During the Elmwood High School's Homecoming events, Mattison Hillard was crowned as the Queen and Jonah Childress was crowned as the King. The pictures below are of the newly crowned King and Queen and the full court.

As you prepare for the upcoming winter sports season, please consider purchasing a reserved seat in the gymnasium for all of the Royal sports action! For $25, you can reserve your seat for the upcoming season. That $25 will reserve your seat for all girls and boys basketball games and our home wrestling matches for this season. If you are interested in purchasing reserved seats, please call Ty Traxler in the athletic office at 419-655-2583, Ext. 324 to set up an appointment with the office to come to the gymnasium and select your seat!

A yearly tradition for Elmwood is a fundraiser where we sell t-shirts to the elementary students and then have the high school football team sign the t-shirt. This is a special event for our little ones and they look forward to it each year.

Congratulations to our 7th grade football team who finished the season as NBC Co-Champions!! A hearty thank you goes out to coaches Adam Holcombe and Steven Gehret.

On Monday, October 30th, starting at 7pm there will be a mandatory OHSAA Parent Meeting for Prospective Winter Athletes/Parents in grades 7-12 in the Auditoria. After the large group meeting, each sport will branch off to a designated location for their individual sport meeting.

MUSIC TO YOUR MOUTH

Make dinner a selfless act by joining us for a fundraiser to support Elmwood Music Boosters. Come in to the Chipotle at 1558 East Wooster Street in Bowling Green on Wednesday, November 15th between 4:00pm and 8:00pm. Bring in this flyer, show it on your smartphone or tell the cashier you're supporting the cause to make sure that 50% of the proceeds will be donated to Elmwood Music Boosters.

I ran this in the last newsletter, but still wanted to remind you that the Elmwood Music Boosters is having a fundraiser coming up in November.
